Dear Drs. Saether and Evers,

The ESSSAT is the third group to respond in a dishonest manner to the article I submitted that I am now calling, "An Analogy Between Nazi Germany and the United States." I've attached the hogwash I got from the Center for Theology and Natural Sciences as well as my response. My offer to meet with the American Historical Association to explain why the article "Entropy and evolution" should be retracted is being ignored. I'm keeping track of my correspondence with ESSSAT at <http://www.pseudoscience123.com>.

Keep in mind that we don't know how God will judge us. He may not care about sins that can't be undone, like murdering an innocent person. He may only judge us from the sins we still have on our conscience when we die.

Very truly yours,

David Roemer
