Dear David,

It doesn't matter if the AJP article is absurd or not. The Historian is not where you take up the issue of correcting it. Your article has no place in an academic journal.

The fact that a person does not want to talk to you does not mean they are insincere. Nobody is under any obligation to discuss anything with you, especially when you confuse conjecture with fact so readily.

I've already gone beyond the limits of common sense myself. I will delete any further messages from you without opening them--not because I am insincere, but because you are all over the map, and you make assumptions about people's intentions and judgments that are manifestly unwarranted.

In the Peace of Christ, out.
